

Newspaper and Magazine Category Descriptions Fall 2019

This contest contains categories for photography, layout and design, writing, and miscellaneous other aspects of an online newspaper, print newspaper, or magazine.

Schools may submit up to four entries per category unless otherwise noted. If your yearbook is non-traditional, just use the category that fits best for the entries you want to submit.

Screening Process

Please check your entries carefully before submitting them. All content materials become the property of AIPA. First place winners may be used for publication purposes.

Due to the large number of entries, please follow this screening process or entries MAY BE DISQUALIFIED for the following reasons:

-Entries submitted in the wrong category. Please read thoroughly the descriptions for each category to determine if an entry meets the Criteria listed.

-Writing and photography entries not outlined in RED on the page. Failure to indicate the specific entry will result in disqualification.

-Incomplete information included with the entry

-Entering more than four entries per category.

-Not having been published or posted during the contest period.

-Copyright violation or plagiarized work.

-Submissions received after the deadline.

Remember: You must submit the Membership and Contest Registration Form before you will be eligible. This form is available at azaipa.org as an online submission as well as a PDF.

Naming the Entries

Each PDF entry must be named with category number (found in the category documents at azaipa.org) school name, student's full name and a shortened form of the headline or caption for the entry.

Example:

N2_SunriseMountain_KristyRoschke_Homecoming

Any entry that represents the work of more than two students should be designated as a "staff" entry rather than naming the individual students. Please outline in red the content to be judged on the page or spread.

You will upload these PDF's with your entry form.
